

We have the knowledge and experience that comes from creating transport solutions for over 88 years.

Pavlovich Coachlines began as M. Pavlovich & Sons Ltd in 1938, addressing the need for safe rural transport near Hamilton. Over time, the company gained renown for its safe school transport, leading to expansion into tourism in the 1960s. Strategic management by Ivan and Mary Pavlovich ensured growth into the 21st century.

Securing its first Auckland City Bus contract in 1999 marked Pavlovich's expansion into urban transportation. Its primary coach fleet operates from Auckland, with a branch in Christchurch. Pavlovich Coachlines boasts a fleet of approximately 100 buses and coaches, offering services across New Zealand.

Recently, Pavlovich has merged with the Ritchies Transport Group, operating as a stand-alone brand and continuing its tradition of customer service and safety.
